AÑEJO TEQUILA (Aged)

Mexican Legal Definition – Tequila that has been aged for a minimum of one year, in government sealed oak barrels that are no larger than 600 liters. A side, most añejos are masterpieces and should not be mixed. To enjoy these superb spirits use a snifter, let it breathe and roll the juice over the tongue.

PREMIUM

SAUZA TRIADA Hand crafted and perfectly balanced. Triada is the only añejo tequila that starts as a reposado before receiving an additional aging in small oak bourbon barrels.

SAUZA CONMEMORATIVO One of the few mixed tequilas aged long enough to be designated as an añejo. Great for adding smoothness and body to a premium margarita.

CORRALEJO AÑEJO From the state of Guanajuato. Balanced flavors, spicy, earthy and refreshing. Sip and enjoy.

LAPIZ AÑEJO Hints of herb and citrus in the character of this super premium tequila.

CAZADORES AÑEJO Aged no less than 12 months, in new, small, American white oak barrels. The authentic, smooth flavor is best enjoyed as a sipping tequila.

SAUZA HORNITOS AÑEJO Exceptionally blended and aged one to three years or more in American oak barrels.

DISTINGUIDO AÑEJO Incredibly aromatic, Añejo is carefully aged up to three years in oak barrels that were previously used to age the reposado tequila.

TRAGO AÑEJO Medium-brown with orange-golden color attributed to the aging; to the nose hints of vanilla, maple and almond aromas together with an undeniable smoke-peppery smell that comes from the agave plant.

SAUZA TRES GENERACIONES Aged for two years, this smooth tequila is best for sipping and savoring.

HERRADURA AÑEJO Excellent balance, dry, smooth and herbaceous. Sip this gem. Never mix.
